

The Extraordinary Winter Adventures of an Alaskan Kitten

This tale-like story is about a small cat who, on a warmer winter day in Alaska, decides to go outside to have some fun. Discover his unexpected day full of encounters and adventures! This puppet show for age 5 and up features handcrafted wooden string puppets and some shadows.

Themes: friendship, overcoming prejudice and fears, growing up, empathy, and animals wintering in Alaska.

Q&A: The show is followed by a short presentation of the puppets to be able to meet them more closely.

Puppet workshop: Each student will then be able to make a little paper puppets inspired from the show to continue to play at home.

Age group: 5 and up

Duration: 60 min total: ~30 min puppet show, ~5 min Q&A, ~30 min puppet workshop (with adult help).

Audience: up to 60 seats per show.

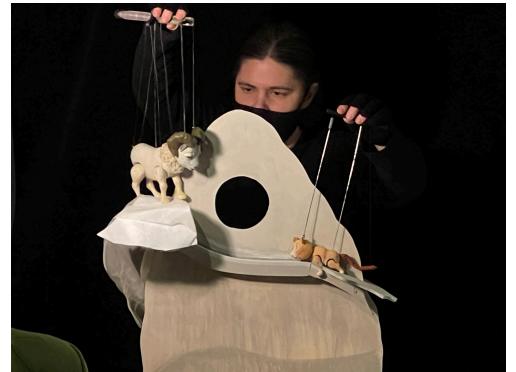

Setting time before show: 2.5 hours

Taking down after shows: 1 hour

Reset time in between shows: 90 minutes

Stage space needed: 13ft (4 m) wide / 8ft (3.5m) depth

Other requirements: access to an electric plug, and extra hands to help with the workshop part (cutting, gluing).
